

MOODY NATIONAL REIT II, INC.
ELECTRONIC DELIVERY ELECTION

As a stockholder of Moody National REIT II, Inc. (the “Company”), you may elect to receive electronic delivery of annual reports, proxy statements and other stockholder communications and notifications from the Company (collectively, “stockholder communications”) instead of receiving paper copies of such stockholder communications.

We encourage you to reduce printing and mailing costs and to conserve natural resources by electing to receive electronic delivery of stockholder communications. By electing to receive electronic delivery of stockholder communications, including your account-specific information, you authorize the Company or its designated agents to either (i) email stockholder communications to you directly or (ii) make them available on the Company’s website and notify you by email when and where such stockholder communications are available.

You must have internet access to access electronically delivered stockholder communications. By electing to receive electronic delivery of stockholder communications, you will be responsible for your customary internet service provider charges and may be required to download software in connection with access to electronically delivered stockholder communications. You will not receive paper copies of any electronically delivered stockholder communications unless specifically requested, the electronic delivery of the stockholder communications is prohibited or the Company, in its sole discretion, elects to send paper copies of the stockholder communications.

If you would like to consent to electronic delivery, including pursuant to email, of stockholder communications, please complete, sign, date and return this consent via e-mail to investorservices@moodynational.com or via mail to Moody National REIT II, Inc., P.O. Box 219280, Kansas City, MO 64121-9280.

I hereby consent to electronic delivery of all stockholder communications:
